What is Liberal Studies ?

Liberal studies is a program that prepares students for careers that require oral and written communication skills, critical thinking, and a general knowledge of arts and letters. A course of study in liberal arts fosters an understanding of people, nations, institutions, history , art, science, and how these influence the development of society and culture.

Mission:

The Mission of the Liberal Studies Department is to provide quality subject-matter preparation that fulfills the standards of the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing. The vision of the Liberal Studies Department is to provide an education that is supportive, integrative, multicultural, interdisciplinary, and rigorous in order to prepare our graduates for a seamless transition into a teacher credential program, career in education, and/or graduate studies.
