Methods of Payment

The National Hispanic University accepts the following payment for student's account:

Cash
Check, cashier's check, certified money order, or money order
Credit Cards: Visa, MasterCard, and Discover Card only.

All checks and money orders should be made payable to The National Hispanic University and include appropriate identification, such as name, social security number, or driver's license number. Student's whose checks are returned due to insufficient funds will be subject to cancellation of their registration in addition to the $25.00 returned check fee per check.

Payment Deferral

Students who register for classes prior to the beginning of a semester must pay tuition and registration fee in full on the day he/she registers for classes. However, payment may be deferred for students in the following categories:

Those who receive financial aid and/or scholarships.

Those who signed up for an Installment Payment Plan (IPP). IPP will be broken into three monthly installments per semester and all balances must be paid in full by the end of the current semester.

Students on financial aid and/or scholarships will be given a deferral of their payments until the loan or grant or scholarship is received by NHU. After all financial aid and/or scholarships are credited to the student's account, any remaining balance is due before the end of the current semester.

Unpaid Balances

Holds will be placed immediately on accounts of students with an unpaid balance after the semester ends and/or after the third or last payment due date. A student under this circumstance will not be allowed to register for the following semester, request a transcript, request a diploma and/or certificates.
