Undergraduate student advising is not as strong as it could be

The following are barriers to full and continued achievement of this goal:

- Faculty advisors do not have as much time to advise individual students due to other duties.
- NHU does not have as many faculty as it used to.
- Faculty may not be the best pool from which advisors are selected.
- Non-faculty advisors lack experience.
- Advising is centered on the facilitation of registration.
- Advisors lack a clear protocol.
- Advisors are not adequately trained.
- NHU lacks a chief academic officer.
- No person has taken the initiative to define this.
- NHU has not defined the overarching purpose of advising.
- NHU has limited referral capacity for counseling services.

NHU will meet the needs of students, faculty, staff, alumni to fulfill its mission.
